

Maximising your SAP BI investment with the SAP BusinessObjects™ toolset

Unleash the power of your business data – migrate to SAP BusinessObjects™ and see your data fly

Thinking of migrating your BI content to SAP BusinessObjects?
Let us help you get it right first time.

Many of our clients come to us because they are facing challenges with their Business Intelligence (BI) systems. Some find that the existing SAP BI toolset doesn't have the full functionality they need, especially now that SAP is focussed on developing SAP BusinessObjects™. Others are concerned about the issues involved in migrating from SAP Business Warehouse to BusinessObjects™, especially if they are new to it.

Here at Xoomworks our raison d'être is to help our clients make their data sing with SAP BusinessObjects™. We believe it is important for businesses to stay aligned to SAP, and to keep up to date with developments and new skills. We help them translate their business needs into clear IT requirements that will be delivered by SAP BusinessObjects™, maximising their investment in Business Intelligence.

In a nutshell, we can help you migrate to the Business Intelligence landscape of the future.

Highlights:

- Maximise your SAP BI investment around the SAP BusinessObjects™ toolset
- Achieve migration to a World-class, robust BI tool
- Xoomworks has a proven track record helping major companies solve their BI issues
- We are the experts in SAP BusinessObjects™

"We wanted one place for all our business intelligence content and, with Xoomworks' help, we have got that."
