

How will you convert retail sales data into true business insight?

Fast track your business intelligence project with Xoomworks single point BI solution

In today's challenging retail environment, responding to ever changing consumer trends and marketplace realities is vital to gain a competitive advantage. A lack of visibility into operational efficiencies can reduce your ability to make sound decisions, with executives and managers relying on instinct rather than solid supporting evidence to steer the business.

At Xoomworks, we combine the experience gained from integrating and reporting on retail sales data with profound knowledge of the entire SAP® BusinessObjects™ product suite, to provide your users with timely, accurate and automated retail sales KPIs.

Technology has transformed retail; now let it transform your business! Xoomworks' comprehensive retail sales service offering is designed to fast-track your business intelligence project by leveraging our extensive industry and technology experience. Our consultants understand the complex nature of retail specific metrics and the challenges of implementing them. We will work with you to rapidly determine and implement a catalogue of user-defined retail sales KPIs that align perfectly with your line-of-business goals.

Our interactive solutions will allow you to visualise total and like-for-like sales by period, distribution channel, store, product lines and much more, while delivering the appropriate level of detail for all your information consumers. Customise the solution to suit your needs, by choosing from a range of executive dashboards, automated reports and cutting edge analysis and exploration tools, all of which can be made available on mobile devices

Highlights:

- Consistent standardised view of retail KPIs in a single point BI solution
- Period on Period total and 'like-4-like' sales variances
- Forecast and budget sales variances
- Sales in multiple currencies and exchange rates
- Empower decision makers with a range of interactive Dashboard, Reporting and Analysis tools

"They are excellent with performance optimisation and for sorting out problems - doing investigations and trouble shooting."
