What is your strategy to make your SAP® BI solution mobile?

Xoomworks can help you define your mobile BI strategy and select the best mobile BI solution for your organisation

With many hours spent travelling or meeting clients, do you feel you are empowering your organisation to make critical decisions on the go? The need for up-to-date information 24/7, regardless of physical location is transforming the BI landscape, but how will you define a mobile strategy that maximises your existing SAP® BusinessObjects™ solution?

The BI marketplace is awash with tools that mobilise your data. With many factors to consider, there are often more questions than answers when defining a mobile BI strategy. Will the chosen solution integrate with and leverage your existing BI deployment? How will you meet security requirements? Does your strategy include BYOD or will your organisation provide mobile devices? The list seems endless…

At Xoomworks, we combine years of practical SAP® BusinessObjects™ experience with a proven tool selection methodology to help you define your mobile BI strategy. Our consultants work with you to identify your individual requirements and select the best mobile BI solution for your organisation.

Benefits of Mobile BI:

- Faster decision making
- Increased employee productivity
- Reduced sales cycle time span
- Lower costs and material expenditure
- Reduced administration task time
